Find the best teaching strategies and connect to educators around the world

If you live in a country with a developing economy, you can join the International Reading Association at half the price of a regular membership. For only US$12 per year, you receive a full year of membership and an online subscription to one of IRA's three peer-reviewed journals. And if you would like to receive a print copy of your journal, it's only US$15 each.
CONNECT...
To a vibrant, global community of literacy professionals

- Support literacy programs all over the world. Join our advocacy efforts, volunteer for a literacy project, or explore leadership opportunities in the Association.
- Network with colleagues, literacy leaders, and authors at IRA’s Annual Conference—members receive significant discounts, saving you many times the cost of an annual membership!
- Choose from a variety of special interest groups to explore issues with other members.
- Apply for a wide range of awards and grants. See eligibility requirements at www.reading.org.

ACCESS...
Cutting-edge professional development resources, proven teaching strategies, and the latest literacy news

- Enjoy practical, how-to articles from popular literacy speakers—updated every month.
- Find creative classroom ideas in our monthly e-newsletter, IRA Inspire.
- Save 20% on IRA’s literacy-focused books and videos.

DISCOVER...
New ways to improve instruction with IRA’s research-based journals

The Reading Teacher is a peer-reviewed journal for teachers of children up to age 12. It provides the latest evidence-based teaching strategies and shows you how to implement them in your classroom.

Journal of Adolescent & Adult Literacy is the only peer-reviewed, research-based journal that gives you the most effective literacy instruction techniques for older students.

Reading Research Quarterly is the leading peer-reviewed journal of literacy research, with content addressing all levels of education.
